Dear Parents/Carers

Arrangements Year 11 GCSE Exams

The GCSE external examinations will start week commencing Monday 13th May 2019 and will continue through May until the end of June 2019. We would ask that you do not book any early holiday as students may be required to finish coursework, which is due for submission by 1st July 2019.

At Rockwood, we are making additional arrangements to schedule revision sessions of up to 2 hours before every exam to ensure that your child receives the support and guidance required in preparation for the summer examinations. Please read the timetable and expectation below:

Expectations

- All Year 11 students are expected to attend the revision sessions from Monday 13th May 2019.
- Specialist teachers will be delivering all the revision session during this period of examinations.
- Revision sessions will run from 7.30am when there is a morning exam scheduled.
- Afternoon exams start at 1.30pm therefore Year 11 lunch will be at 1.00pm to 1.30pm. Any student who normally goes home for lunch, will be expected to remain in school throughout the examination period.
- Students who do not have an afternoon exam can opt to use the study area, which will be supervised by SLT.
- You can also find a copy of the Exam and Revision timetable on the school website.
- The revision sessions in the evening will now be from 3.15pm to 5.00pm.

Please continue to work with us and thank you for your continuous support during this very busy exam season.

Yours sincerely
